The following items of interest are from a letter written by George W. Covell and his wife Mary Elizabeth (Faro) Covell of Fish Creek Landing,(Vienna), New York, in the year 1897, to their son and daughter-in-law, Charles Clinton Covell and Ida Grace (Quinn) Covell, who were at the time living in Scotland, South Dakota.

The letter now (1957) is in the possession of Mrs. Margaret (Covell) Nero, one of their daughter's, who resides at 705 W. Walnut St., Rome, New York, and is being copied by her for the Old New York Frontier Chapter, National Society, Daughters of the American Colonists, Rome, New York.

Vienna, N.Y.,
Dec. 7th 1897.

Dear Charles and Ida:

We received your kind letter and we wish it were so that you could be with us.

Nettie Cook is married - married a Mr. Powel, a widower. He married Peter C. Clifford's daughter for his first wife. He owns the farm adjoining Nettie's father's farm - the Holiday farm, you know where that is. He owns the Holiday farm and the farm old Mr. Clifford used to own.

Helen Cook married a man who is a stranger to us. He lived at Sandy Creek.

If you want to write to Laura*, write to Brooklyn, Erie Basin, in care of E. Sulivan. We expect her home for Christmas. We don't know whether she can get away or not, but we hope she can.

We think it must be a nice country where you are living, and if we were younger, we would like to come and live with you. Your mother has not been feeling very well lately.

Sim Wyman left the farm last spring and Lillie's husband has worked it this last season. It is said he is not going to work it the next season. We think he is a good worker and we don't know the reason why he does not stay. We think he had good crops.

Mr. Wyman and Doug are to work on the enlargement of the canal at Durhamville.

Our love to you and Ida and we will say God bless you is our constant prayer. We want to meet you in heaven.

George W. Covell

Camden, N.Y.

My dear Mr. Covell:-

I am trying to look up information regarding the Humiston family and as you live where the name used to be common I thought you might help me.

I have the record of a William Covell who married a Humaston. Do you know her first name. They had a daughter Martha b. 22 June 1826 who married Jerome Cleaveland.

Do you know anything about Elisha Humiston who died Dec. 21, 1836 ae 58 or Aziba Humiston who died Feb. 19, 1842, ae 58.

Was not Charles S. Humiston, b. 1817 died 1878 (who married Sarah A. b. 1817 - d 1894) brother of Franklin Humiston, who has a granddaughter living in Weber, Kans. I wish I could learn the name of Franklin's father.

Any information which you can send me will be greatly appreciated.

Very cordially yours,

Wallace Humiston.

My dear Mr. Covell:-

I thank you very much for your prompt reply and the information which you give. Someone has copied the Humiston inscriptions in the McConnellsville cemetery for me. Most of the Humastons buried there belong to the John Humaston family who came from North Haven, Conn., and was one of the first settlers of Vienna. I do not think that Franklin Humiston belonged to John's branch, because I have a pretty good record of John's descendants. Franklin spelled his name differently also. The reason why I think that Franklin was the son of Elisha Humiston, is because the latter has a tombstone in McConnellsville cemetery. He died 2 Dec. 1836, ae 58, so that he would have been of the right age to be father of Franklin. - Azuba Humiston died 19 Feb. 1842, ae 58; when you were about 4 yrs. old. Is she the woman you had in mind? In the same cemetery is a tombstone of Charles S. Humiston (1817-1878). Sarah A. his wife (1817-1894) Willard E. their son (1839-1868). I suppose Charles above was a brother of Franklin, was he not? Do you know anything about another brother named Elijah? Did he marry and have a family?

I have a record of Zenas Humiston, son of Timothy of Harwinton, Conn. Zenas died 8 Dec. 1873, ae 60 and is buried in the old Camden cemetery, about 4 miles from McConnellsville, N.Y. I think that there are other Humiston tombstones in this cemetery. Is it near your home? If you should find it convenient to copy any Humiston inscriptions I would certainly be greatly interested and obliged.

I was very much interested in what you wrote about Mr. Chester Covell. He might be able to help out a good deal. I am very anxious to learn the name of Franklin's father. I suspect that Zenas was a cousin of his.

Have you ever heard of a Rev. Fred Humiston? I have heard that he used to live in West Vienna, but I do not know his present address.

Thanking you very much for your kindness, I am

Very cordially yours,

Wallace Humiston

The following letter was written by Mr. Wallace Humiston of Northfield, Conn, in the year 1922, to Mr. Charles Clinton Covell, who was at the time living in Camden, New York.

The letter now (1957) is in the possession of Mrs. Margaret (Covell) Nero, of 705 W. Walnut St., Rome, N.Y. and is being copied by her for the Old New York Frontier Chapter, National Society, Daughters of the American Colonists, Rome, New York.

My dear Mr. Covell:-

Your interesting letter received. I thank you very much for your kindness in seeing Chester Covell. I was very glad to learn the name of Franklin Humiston's father. I would be glad to know the names of his sisters and whom they married - also if they had children. Do you know if Charles and Nelson Humiston had any children? Do you think you will see Mr. Chester Covell again soon? I would be glad to write to him but I think you wrote that he was not well enough to attend to any correspondence.

I would count it a great pleasure to have you send me a copy of any tombstone inscriptions in the old Camden cemetery which pertain to Humistons.

Thanking you again for your kindness, I am

Very cordially yours,

Wallace Humiston.

The following is a copy of notes written by Mr. Charles Clinton Covell, Camden, N.Y. to Rev. Wallace Humiston of Northfield, Conn, in the year 1922.

The notes now (1957) are in the possession of Mrs. Margaret (Covell) Nero, Rome, N.Y. - copied for the Old New York Frontier Chapter, National Society, Daughters of the American Colonists, Rome, New York, by her.

My dear Mr. Covell:-

Thank you very much for your great kindness in sending me the facts which you obtained from Mr. Chester Covell. You have helped me a good deal in my work.

I shall be pleased to receive a copy of Camden inscriptions when your strength is equal to the task. I have learned for sure that a Zenas Humiston buried in Camden came there from Harwinton, Conn. He had a brother Salmon who also located in Camden. Zenas left property by will to Enos F. Humiston. This Enos had a son Oswin and three daughters - Manda married Alonzo Smith; Roxanna married Dyer Eveare; Mary married Joseph Guest. Did you ever hear of any of these people?

Oswin has a son, Frank E., still living at Rockford, Ill.

Again thanking you for your kindness, I am

Very truly yours,

Wallace Humiston
